William Smoak of Orangeburg Wines, county, S. C., has 10 living children, 104 grandchildren, 391 great-grand-children, and 70 great-grand-children, making in all 575 living de-scendents, besides 116 dead. He boasts that there is not a drunkard among them.

Almost the only business which has thriven in England of late years has been that of the umberella makers, in whose family prayers the petition for rain is popularly supposed to be ing variably included—albeit sunshine is not without its mild compensation to them in view of parasol sales.

James H. Shafer of Bellefontaine, O., had a wife whom his brother, George M. Shafer, loved. The upshot was a transfer of the woman, by means of a divorce, and James received in payment a mortgage for $1,500 on George's property. This bargain, made several years ago, was kept a secret until lately; but a quarrel over the mortgage has carried the matter

Two hundred years ago the shaft of the turquoise mine in Chalchutl Moun-tain, New Mexico, caved in and a hundred Indians below at work were killed. The Spaniards tried to force the Indians to work the mine, and the result was a rebellion and the expulsiou of the Spanish. Now some American capitalists are about to reopen the mine, which is the only one of the kind on the continent.

PIUTE "SUGAR CANE "

W. R. Frink, of Sacramento, writes to the Record-Union as follows about the Piute sugar cane: "This morning I received the following letter from George Lovelocks, of Lovelocks, Nevada. He says: 'I the sectional feeling against the South. will describe the way it (the sugar) is He is a bold orator, skilled and keen in produced, as I have noticed it for debate, an adroit politician, a "workmany years. What great measure has from six to eight feet high, about the he originated in all the years of his size of a man's finger. It has a silky tassel. It is also found on the willows away from the reeds. I have also seen it on different kinds of small bushes. In the latter part of August on the vexed questions of finance, taxwhen we are cutting hay, we go under the willows for shade. If we look up through the willow bushes we will see it falling like a mist. It is real sugar. It falls like a kind of honey-dew. I do not believe it comes out of the reeds, or cane, as they call it. It is accompanied by an insect- a kind of not be accorded James G. Blaine louse. The Indians gather the seeds and grass and bushes together, then thrash with sticks, and sift it out, melt it down and strain through cloth. It is pure sugar. But where it comes from has always puzzled me. The Indians gather a large quantity of it every Fall, and cattle get very fat by

The cane or reed which was supposed to produce the sugar found on its leaves and stems is evidently of no value. The insects which Mr. Lovelock speaks of as living on the plant are doubtless the "honey-dew" producers, the aphides, or plant flee, de scribed in this column yesterday. Their peculiar sweet secretion crys talizes into grains on the exterior of the plant, and has thus given rise to the story of the "Piute Sugar Cane." Honey Lake in Lassen county received its name from the "honey dew" which is found upon the tules around its margin. The vegetation throughout Honey Lake valley exhibits deposits of the same substance, excepting the salt grass. The plants in that section are infested by the aphis.

UNSATISFACTORY CANDIDATES.

The kind of man that Blaine is is well described by the New York Independent Republicans. in a recent circular,

"Many Republicans recognize in Mr.
Blaine the type of the 'statesman' found upon the surface after the war, who have great reputations but have established no claim to the respect of this generation. Their triumphs are registered in the caucus but not upon the statute-book. They have neither advocated nor been identified with any great measure. Their cleverness and great vehemence is devoted wholly to the acquisition and retention of office, and after years of legislative employment they can point to no permanent or conspicuous service which "Many Republicans recognize in Mr.

The New York Nation in commentonly prominent Republican to whom these remarks apply. Mr. Cameron of Pennsylvania, and Mr. Conkling of New York, are also illustrations of the same type, and this type may be called novel. It was known to the American people before and during the war; it is unknown in every other parliamentary country to this day."

It is unfortunately true that many of the Presidential candidates, without regard to party, are unsatisfactory. There are undoubredly many much better men than either Grant or Blaine in the Republican party, and who can doubt that there are better Democrats

Mr. Verington is perfectly right and the public should sustain him. It would be a disgrace to Nevada should in ascociation of unscrupulous men be allowed to regulate the affairs of an important railroad. Every man has a right to dispose of his labor as he may hink best. Any interference with that right is necessarily arbitrary and injust. The demands, or rather the orders, of the Union directly attack individual liberty. Men have an unloubed moral right to form associations to keep up the rates of labor, and Reno Evening Gazette to mutually agree not to work for less than a certain rate of wages. But they have no right to dictate what other men shall work for, nor to at-tempt to force other men to join their organization.

JAMES G. BLAINE.

What are James G. Blaine's merits as a Presidential candidate? It is little to say of him that he is magnetic. The best man for President among the Republican party should have some higher claim to consideration than his personal influence over other men. Senator Blaine has been a long time in public life. He has made himself popular with the Stalwart element of his party by keeping alive public life? What reform has he inaugurated? Has he ever introduced in Congress any bill of great national importance? Has he thrown any light ation or government? No one claims that Blaine has won any distinction as a statesman. He is simply a "whiteplumed" party captain.

No man should be President of the United States whose character is not above reproach. Such a character can

Decline of the Grant Movement

From the New York Herald.

It does not now seem probable that the utmost efforts of the third-termers can prevail at Chicago. The rope which has been twisted by them to drag the ex-President back into the White House proves to be a rope of sand. There is open mutiny in the party in Pennsylvania, and it is doubtful whether Mr. Cameron will not break down his own power in that State if he attempts to control its delegation for a purpose so plainly hateful to the mass of Republican voters as is the third term movement. In new York, the only other State whose Convention, by a narrow ma-jority, has consented to the third term, the discontent is as serious as in Pennsylvania, and open resistance is ap-parently only delayed. In Illinois the only two counties which have held conventions have a majority of their delegates for Blaine. But it is clear that the nomination, even if it were cured, would not bring an election Murder in Salt Lake.

SALT LAKE CITY, April 1 .- Early yesterday morning a man was found opposite the Tithing Office, on Main street, with a pistol wound in the back of the head. From the blood stains on the sidewalk the indications are that he was shot under the Eagle Gate in front of Brigham's Beehive house, and the supposition is that he was killed for his money by two tramps in whose company he was seen at an early hour last evening. From a memorandum on his person he is sypposed to be George Wilson Drake of Beattie, Marshall county, Kansas.

The Chronicle is a thorough newspaper. It is a daily epitome of the world's history. While Democratic in its principles, it is the organ of no political organization. Nor is it the servant of any corporation. It advocates Democratic principles because it believes that the fundamental doctrines of that party form the life and essence of the American system of government, while those of the Republican party aim to the overthrow of popular government.

Terms of the Daily Chronicle:

FRESH TROUBLE ON THE V. & T.

Running Engines in Storey County.

On Wednesday afternoon, at the Gold Hill depot, Reynolds and Minor, two engineers of the V. & T. R. R. were notified by a party of men that they must obtain permission from the Mechanics' Union before running engines in Storey county any more. Reynolds has never been a member of the Union. Minor had been a member, but obtained a withdrawal card last Saturday on the understanding that he was to run no more engines in Storey county. Both men were permitted to take their engines back to Carson.

MR VERINGTON INTERVIEWED. A reporter of the Carson Appeal found Mr. Yerington last evening at Reporter-What do you propose to do about the stopping of your engi-Neers?

Yerington—I hardly know at present what course of action to pursue, except this: If the Mechanics Union propose to run the road their way, I shall simply allow each engineer who receives a notice of that kind to run his engine or not, as he may see fit. ose to run the road their way, I If he don't propose to run it, I shall take it at once to the round-house and abandon the train.

Rep.—Passenger trains and all? Yerington—Everything. Rep.—Will Reynolds take his engine up to-morrow Yerington—He can if he wants to. You had better see him; I haven't talked with him about it.

REYNOLDS' STATEMENT

The reporter found Reynolds soon after on Carson street. Rep .- I understand that the Me-

Reynolds—A body of men waited on me at Gold Hill and told me not to bring my engine into Storey county. There were some fifteen or twenty men. I did not ask them by what authority they gave me the order, but I recog-nized some men from the Mechanics' Union. Judd and Fitzgerald were in the crowd, but I can't say I know the care much about the trip. WHAT THE UNION WILL DO.

A reporter of the Chronicle held the following dialogue in Virginia yesterday with President Mackay of the Machanics' Union:

Reporter-Were the men who stopped those engines yesterday authorized to do so by the Mechanics' Union? Mr. Mackay—No, but I am sure the Union will indorse their action. They are members of the Union, and were present last Saturday night when the card was granted to Minor, and heard him make a solemn pledge that he would not run into the county any more if granted a withdrawal card. He violated that pledge and they were naturally indignant. -What is the intention of the Union in this matter?

Mr. M .- It is the intention of the Union to stop every engineer running into this county, unless the rules of the society are complied with. This will be accomplished by the union in its own way. That may as well be understood first as last.

tock. See notice.

If to grow out of the action of the F. J. Fletter's little six-year-old Union. Should the trains cease to run and the mails not be delivered in consequence, it will be a case for Government interference. The Governor would be obliged to order out the militia and bloodshed might result.

It rained over a large area in California all day yesterday. The lightning train from San Francisco ran through rain all the way to Blue Canyon, thence through fast falling snow to Boca, and on to Reno in rain again. to Boca, and on to Reno in rain again. It began to sprinkle here about 10 o'clock last evening, with black and threatening clouds obscuring the heavens. Rain fell during the night, and heavy showers descended after daylight. To-day the weather has been as fickle here as it ever is anywhere. First rain, next snow, followed by sunshine and blue sky, then a dash of shine and blue sky, then a dash of rain again, quickly turning to snow that went flying before the wind and melted as it fell. This afternoon the prospects for a stormy night seem Remarkable Cure of Lockjaw.

A man about to marry was seized with lockjaw in Winnemucca very early last Wednesday morning, and rushing to a drugstore he beat upon the door for admittance. The proprietor, on opening the door, mistook his visitor for a tramp and knocked him down. Strange to say, the man's lockjaw was instantly cured by the blow.

The Sentinel, of Chicago, Sept. 9, says:
"We call the attention of our readers to the new advertisement of the Inventors' Agency, No. 116 E. Washington street, Chicago. What the Inventors' Agency agrees to do, they will do. The Sentinel has advertised for the concern since its first publication, and we have yet to hear of the first complaint against it."

The Chicago Express, Sept. 9, says: "The attention of readers is called to the advertisement of 'The Inventors' Agency,' office and rooms located at 116 Washington St. Chicago. From personal inquiry and on the recommendation of the city press, we think our friends can do no better when wanting goods in that line. Give them a trial "The American Stockman, Sept. 11, says: "We believe this institution perfectly sound and reponsible, and consequently persons seed have no hesitation about sending for what they desire."

MIDDLE-AGED MEN.

There are many at the age of thirty and sixty who are troubled with too frequent evacuations of the bladder, often accompanied by a slight smarting or burning sensation and a weakening of the system "a a manner the patient cannot account for. On examining the urinary deposits a ropy sediment will often be found, and some small particles of albumen will appear, or the color will be of a thin milkish hue, again changing to a dark and torpid appearance. There are many men who die of this difficulty, ignorant of the canse, which is the second stage of seminal weakness. Dr. S will guarantee a perfect care in all such cases, and a healthy restoration of the genito-urinary organs.
